Early County Community Involvement – Jeanette King Park, Utilities, Excessive Policing
Mr. George Brown presented the Council with several items that had been brought up in a community meeting. There were items about the Jeanette King Memorial Park, utility bills and described what was felt as excessive policing. The Mayor stated that the Council would like to address these concerns of the citizens and asked if two weeks to respond would be agreeable with Mr. Brown. Mr. Brown stated that the two weeks was acceptable.

IV) Administrative Committee

Will Caudill – Updates

Chief Caudill gave an update on the August activity. He also stated that Animal Control was having a high number of calls. He spoke of training events that had been hosted in the new training center of the Government Complex building. He informed the Council that the Police Dept and Fire Dept were discussing the possibility of a haunted house, in October, in the Government Complex building

Craig Hughes – Updates

Project Manager, Craig Hughes, had a power point presentation of the July financials. He then updated the Council and public on the ongoing City projects, such as, CDBG, Gateway and several others. He spoke of items that need to be done at the Civic Center such as painting, metal work and a few others. His presentation also included average cost of electric, water, sewer and an average bill. Craig then informed the Council and public that the City had been awarded the 2019 CDBG, which is only for housing, in the amount of $750,000 and that this would incorporate houses on Church St. He also spoke of some other grants that the City was looking into to which Councilman Hutchins if there were grants for utilities. Craig stated that he was not familiar with all grants available and that would be better looked into by someone who was more familiar.

Planning Commission conditional use - CBD

a. Teddy Waller,

Building Official, Mark Hawkins briefly explained that Mr. Waller was trying to sell his building at 34 N. Main and the prospective buyer wanted to open a business and have a loft apt in the building, therefore needing the Conditional Use due to being in the Central Business District

b. Payton Smith

Building Official, Mark Hawkins explained that Mr. Smith had purchased property at 2063 S. Main St and wanted to renovate the property for apts geared toward seniors, therefore needing the Conditional Use due to being in the Central Business District. The Mayor stated that the Southwest Georgia Regional Commission was re-working the Ordinances to incorporate these types of items so that it no longer needed to come before the Council and that this should be done by November. A motion was made by Councilman Middleton and seconded by Councilman Thornton to table both Conditional Use items (Ted Waller and Payton Smith) to wait on the changes in the Ordinance, by the Southwest Georgia Regional Commission. The motion carried unanimously by Councilman present

V) City Attorney's Report

There was a first reading of the Ordinance Establishing Rules & Regulations Governing the Installation of Small Cell Wireless Facilities. The City Attorney, Tommy Coleman, stated that a hearing would need to be held on this item next month and that it has to go before the Planning Commission

VI) City Clerk's Report

The City Clerk provided the Council with the written financial reports to go along with the presentation by Craig Hughes. Councilman Hutchins requested one other item be added to the presentation by Craig, that the Council receives from the Clerk.
