Yelling, shouting, singing, chanting, or making any other loud noise by any means whatsoever, whether by voice, handclapping, stomping, or by mechanical means, on the public streets or other public property or in proximity thereto in such manner and to such extent as to annoy or disturb the peace, quiet, comfort, or repose of persons in any office or in any dwelling, hotel, or other type residence, or of any persons in the vicinity.

No person shall be convicted of an offense under this section if the law enforcement officer failed to comply with the foregoing procedure or if it appears at trial that the explanation given by the person was true and would have dispelled the alarm or immediate concern.
